

DEAL REPORT

October 2016

Renzenbrink & Partner advises AURELIUS Growth Capital on the acquisition of Airplane-Equipment & Services A.E.S. GmbH

A subsidiary of AURELIUS Growth Capital has acquired Airplane-Equipment & Services A.E.S. GmbH (AES) with its seat in Cologne from the managing director and shareholder.

AURELIUS Growth Capital is a holding company with a long-term investment strategy that invests in medium-sized companies with good market positioning. As part of AURELIUS Group, AURELIUS Growth Capital focuses on small and medium-sized succession solutions as well as on the transfer of business assets of larger medium-sized companies and groups.

AES provides services to aircraft manufacturers, aircraft interior decorators and airlines. The company is active in conducting repair works and servicing of plane structures as well as parts of aircraft cabins and in the maintenance of cargo containers. AES has around 100 employees in Cologne, Frankfurt am Main, Leipzig and Basel.

Renzenbrink & Partner advised AURELIUS Growth Capital on the acquisition of AES. The founder and managing shareholder will remain with AES as managing director and minority shareholder.

The team of Renzenbrink & Partner consisted of Dr Andreas Stoll, Dr Ulf Renzenbrink und Dr Maximilian Preisser (all Corporate/M&A).

The inhouse team of AURELIUS Group consisted of Michael Zickler and Dr Stephan Werner (both Legal), Lena Kneidl (Tax) as well as Richard Schulze-Muth und Christopher Grünberg (Finance).

Contact:

T +49 3501710-0

F +49 3501710-10

info@renzenbrink-partner.de