Renzenbrink & Partner advised IK Investment Partners on the acquisition of Studienkreis from Aurelius

Funds advised by IK Investment Partners (Small Cap I Funds) have acquired Studienkreis-Gruppe by Aurelius. The purchase price is EUR 71.7 million. The management intends to participate substantially. The acquisition is subject to the approval by the antitrust authorities.

Founded in 1974, the private tutoring company, based in Bochum, is one of the leading commercial providers of tutoring in Germany and in German-speaking countries for students of all classes in all subjects. Studienkreis-Gruppe is recognized nationwide for its high-quality learning opportunities and its scientifically proven learning concept. The company has high brand awareness and customer satisfaction and is constantly being certified by various testing agencies.

Renzenbrink & Partner advises IK Investment Partners regularly on transactions in Germany. The acquisition of Studienkreis is the third joint acquisition in 2017.

The Renzenbrink & Partner-team consisted of the partners Dr Ulf Renzenbrink (Corporate/Private Equity) and Marc H. Kotyrba (Tax) as well as the associates Dr Niels Maier, Martin Degenhard, Alexander Haunschild, Alexander Steven (all Corporate/Private Equity) and Florian Seitz (Tax).
