

April 2015

Renzenbrink & Partner strengthens its team in the sector of corporate law as well as capital markets with a second entry of a lawyer from Hengeler Mueller

Dr Andreas Stoll will join Renzenbrink & Partner on 1 June 2015 as partner. The 35 year old lawyer worked for Hengeler Mueller since 2009 at their location in Frankfurt am Main, last as senior associate.

Dr Andreas Stoll is an expert regarding company law and capital markets law as well as M&A. His main focus lies on providing legal advice in the field of corporate law, national and international business transformations, securities trading law as well as joint ventures and he advises on D&O liability. In addition, he was involved in certain major capital markets transactions during the recent years, e.g. the stock market launch of OSRAM Licht AG during the separation from Siemens as well as the capital increase of Commerzbank AG in 2011. His clients work in the sector of M&A and capital markets and include private equity and strategic investors as well as banks. Besides his legal practice, Dr Andreas Stoll publishes regularly on topics regarding company law and capital markets and is an author of a commentary on the securities trading act (“Kölner Kommentar zum Wertpapierhandelsgesetz”).

Dr Andreas Stoll is the second lawyer from Hengeler Mueller joining Renzenbrink & Partner after Dr Gunnar L. Schmäser who was part of the founding team of Renzenbrink & Partner. Key aspects of the expertise of Dr Gunnar L. Schmäser are corporate finance, acquisition financing, mezzanine financing and refinancing as well as the issuance of bonds (“Schuldscheinen”). Before joining Renzenbrink & Partner he was part of the team at Hengeler Mueller which advised on the financing of the planned acquisition of Sigma-Aldrich by Merck KGaA and was involved in ABS („Asset-Backed-Securities“) transactions. Additionally, Dr. Gunnar L. Schmäser advises on financial and regulatory aspects arising from investment activities in connection with the laws and regulations on capital investments (“Kapitalanlagegesetzbuch”).

The partners of Renzenbrink & Partner are looking forward to continuing the growth of the law firm with the extended team: „With his expertise and experience in the sector of corporate law and capital markets as well as M&A Dr Andreas Stoll is a perfect and valuable addition to our legal services and also fits in on a personal level.“

contacts:

T +49 3501710-0

F +49 3501710-10

info@renzenbrink-partner.de